Children's bathroom products
Inspired by the ocean

We are a family company working to capture the magic and heritage of Ireland in our range of children's bath time products that are so much more than their function; they are the embodiment of our devotion to living life naturally.

I grew up in Ireland – a free spirit – and have very fond memories of the nurturing that was found in the large families of the past, where children ran free under the careful watch of the extended family and nature provided our playground and all the exercise we needed to grow up strong and healthy.

NoazArk Irish Seaweed blend contains extract of two brown algae's – knotted wrack, that has anti-inflammatory properties, and vitamin B rich kelp (sometimes called bladder wrack) – and red carrageen (also known as Irish Moss) that is rich in vitamins A,E,F and K to soothe skin and fortify and condition hair.

The NoazArk bathtime range is the embodiment of our devotion to living life naturally; soothing, environmentally-friendly, organic and infused with wild seaweed extracts and aloe vera – our products maintain the skin's balance naturally.

Bath Bubbles

A foaming and creamy body wash, naturally and sustainably produced from safflower oleosomes – nature's very own mini energy stores containing vitamin E. A unique, continuous moisture delivery system that is an all-natural alternate to chemical emulsifiers. Organic aloe vera and a blend of 3 wild Irish seaweeds complete the medley of caring ingredients that formulate this kind to the skin wash.

Shampoo

A gentle foaming shampoo whose naturally derived mild surfactants combine with moisturising and conditioning additives to leave hair shiny and scalp clean. Organic aloe vera and a blend of 3 wild Irish seaweeds help reduce itchiness and scaliness associated with cradle cap, whilst chicory extract provides a light coating to seal in moisture and boost smoothness and shine.

Expressing a mother's kindness through its natural, skin friendly formulation, the NoazArk bathtime range is gently fragranced with natural aromatic herbal extracts combined with jasmine and rose, softened with vanilla to leave you smelling, as well as feeling, soft and clean.

Conditioner

The moisturising powerhouse of shea butter combined with organic aloe vera and a blend of 3 wild Irish seaweeds make this hair conditioner the ultimate eco-friendly formulation. Readily biodegradable, light and pleasant to use, our conditioner will not weigh down fine hair, helps reduce flyaway and increase manageability.
